

My Radical Experiment - 2012

I agree with the Radical claim that I can find satisfaction and real service to God only in abandonment to Jesus. So I hereby commit to a one-year experiment of radical living according to the gospel...and to making myself open to the permanent changes God wants to perform in my life as a result of this experiment.

Over the next year...

1. I will pray for the entire world.

To make this commitment real in my life, I choose to...

2. I will read through the entire Word. (browse - www.heartlight.org/devotionals/reading_plans/ for plans)

To make this commitment real in my life, I choose to...

3. I will sacrifice my money for a specific purpose.

To make this commitment real in my life, I choose to...

4. I will spend time in another context.

To make this commitment real in my life, I choose to...

5. I will commit my life to a multiplying community.

To make this commitment real in my life, I choose to...
